

Vocabulary Builder

Analyze - to explain in depth how things are related to each other

Compare - to tell or show how two things are alike and different

Describe - to include enough detail that the topic or subject can be understood

Explain - to give facts and details that make an idea easier to understand

Find - to realize, understand, or locate something by studying or observing

Identify – to show that you recognize something

Justify – to give reasons supporting a decision or conclusion

List – to present information in order or to give examples

Name - to identify something by stating its name